

Sway Away

This Romantic Tragedy

What are you going to do
When i am gone?
Time cannot escape what Lies beyond...

I'ts times like these...
Take what is given
Give away myself worth
Unmark my soul

(Can i break through?)
Can i break through?

The tides between
The mind and soul
misunderstood in our control

Seeing all there is to know...
Close your eyes
And let go!

(Let go of this,
Flesh and body...)
Ahead lies your journey
The emptiness that fills around me

(A feeling of elation,
The darkness and demnation)
The emptiness that fills around me

I cannot mistake what
I've been taught,
Take apart the pieces
Then place them back in thought

Inside out I
Found my concious
Mind where have i
Been this whole time

Start siezing to Exist when i
Find that i'm a
Part of this...

(When the eye is single the whole body is full of light)

Bliss!

We've been searching
For something within!
I lies within us!

My eyes
have seen the coming of the Earth!
And the ruins
Of the land they offered me!

A place found deep within me
