

Shipwrecked

Thomas Anders

I have never felt so alone
As helpless as this before
Cast away on a dark and hostile shore
You were temptation I could not resist
The promise of love ever after
High on the waves of joy
I never looked down to see the reefs of disaster
You left me shipwrecked
You left me shipwrecked
You said you felt like singing
The moment our hands entwined
Even then I sailed on the tides of time
Too soon I gave you more than I could
My heart set on distant horizons
Too late to turn when I found you gone
My cargo of dreams capsizing

Shipwrecked with these memories
I pray for the day
You'll come back and rescue me
Shipwrecked, what am I to do
How can I survive
Lost in a world without you

You were temptation I could not resist
The promise of love ever after
High on the waves of joy
I never looked down to see the reefs of disaster
