

Too Young To Grow Old

Thomas Godoj

What happened to those rocking days?
We were crazy young and lazy
What happened to those wicked ways?
You seduced me wild and carefree

Remember us the stars of yesterday

Too young to lose your faith
What has left us coloured blind?
Forget this complicated life
Too young to let go
Tomorrow moves on
And we are too young to grow old

Nothing could get it between
Need a mirror to remind me
We used to hide inside one stream

Now your spirit cannot find me

Remember how the time was on our side

Too young to lose your faith
What has left us coloured blind?
Forget this complicated life
Too young to let go
Tomorrow moves on
And we are too young to grow old

I'm waking up the dead
I'm turning pages
I'll rearrange it
Won't you help me save the day

Too young to lose your faith
What has left us coloured blind?
Forget this complicated life
Too young to let go
Tomorrow moves on
And we are too young to grow old
