On Broken Wings Of Despair

Throes Of Dawn

Haven?t we lost it all, allready... Blue skies turned to evergray Each dawn turned blacker so deep the embrace of dismay

( We could see our fantasies decaying We could hear our dreams breaking )

Nothing will ever shine again Nothing will ever be the same again Nothing will ever rise again On broken wings of despair

I have no fear for the flames of Hell For nothing can ever be worse than this A world through the veil of tears Perpetual autumn of my soul
