

Awakening

Throw The Fight

You watch me drink away the day
With each breath I become numb
To the voices that are haunting me
You are my drug
I'm so alone, I'm giving up
A broken records all I've got
To remind me of the mess you left when I was lost

Out of the darkness, I will rise
Chasing my demons till I die
I will always be a victim while you're still alive
Out of the shadows, we will fight
Run from the ashes take my life
Back to a place that I can start to take a breath again

You've seen my story all before
I build my walls to hide the loss
I can't pretend that I can love myself, it's who I am
I'm so alone, I'm giving up
A broken records all I've got
To remind me of the mess you left when I was lost

Out of the darkness, I will rise
Chasing my demons till I die
I will always be a victim while you're still alive
Out of the shadows, we will fight
Run from the ashes take my life
Back to a place that I can start to take a breath again

THIS IS MY AWAKENING TO CHANGE MY LIFE!
THIS IS MY AWAKENING TO CHANGE MY LIFE!

Out of the darkness, I will rise
Chasing my demons till I die
I will always be a victim while you're still alive
Out of the shadows, we will fight
Run from the ashes take my life
Back to a place that I can start to take a breath again

THIS IS MY AWAKENING!
THIS IS MY AWAKENING!
