

Beautiful

Throw The Fight

I'll be standing
By your side when you are facing;
Every day with thoughts of suicide and failure
I will stand up
Smother you inside my arms and;
Show you what it's like to see that someone cares
You're making all the wrong decisions!
You're running from the one that'll save you
With all the strength I have--
I'll make you understand: You are beautiful.
When your scars turn into anger and you're thinking
That there's no hope
Of your nightmare ever passing
Please don't worry;
We won't stop- the fire's burning!
Take your life back from the one that caused you pain!
With all the strength I have--
I'll make you understand: You are beautiful.
Blaze the scars that caused your feeling
Blame the scars that caused your fire
With all the strength I have- I'll make you understand
What you are is beautiful
With all the strength I have
I'll make you understand:
You are beautiful
With all the strength I have...
