

Misery

Throw The Fight

Shut out the noise
You're covered in fear now
Lost in the silence and screaming
I Feel the earthquake
Your mind is now set free
There's nothing for me, for me to see

So I empty all my promises
Give you back your necklaces
Choking on every word that you say
Empty all my promises
Stuck here feeling so helpless
Choking on your misery

Cover your ears
Block out what you're hearing
You're hearing nothing but screaming
And I feel that the earth is breaking away
It's time to set my mind free
Looking back at yesterday
Yesterday

So I empty all my promises
Give you back your necklaces
Choking on every word that you say
Empty all my promises
Stuck here feeling so helpless
Choking on your misery

Take back the things that you said
You'll get what's coming to you in the end

So I empty all my promises
Give you back your necklaces
Choking on every word that you say
Empty promises
Choking on your misery
