

No Surrender

Throw The Fight

We'll set their lips on fire
And watch the bastards burn
Smother them with every word we have
We're like a ticking clock
And our hands are cut
Waiting for our chance to take it all

We won't surrender

We live for tomorrow we pick ourselves up
We beg and we borrow we rise from the dust
We scream from the rooftops "we're not giving up"
We fight because we're broken and we've had enough

It's like it's never enough
We'll die before the last flood
Swallows you and all your shallow friends
We'll watch you fall right apart
Then taste your cold shattered heart
As the world around you turns to smoke and flames

We won't surrender

We live for tomorrow we pick ourselves up
We beg and we borrow we rise from the dust
We scream from the rooftops "we're not giving up"
We fight because we're broken and we've had enough

No surrender
No surrender
No, we won't surrender
No, we won't surrender

We live for tomorrow we pick ourselves up
We beg and we borrow we rise from the dust
We scream from the rooftops "we're not giving up"
We fight because we're broken and we've had enough

We won't surrender
No, we won't surrender
