

Scream out Your Name

Throw The Fight

We carry the flag of the broken-hearted
Chasing a dream that is almost faded
Living life like nothing even matters
Breaking the molds that you manufacture
Choosing to love instead of choosing anger
Everything we know turns into ashes

Save us from this world that kills our prayers
Save us from this world that doesn't care

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

We sit in the cold waiting to be chosen
Begging for scraps like we're the one that owes you
Eleven years of waiting for our chances
It's never enough cause we're a step behind you
Holding our breath until the sirens call out
Dreaming of the day when this is over

Save us from this world that kills our prayers
Save us from this world that doesn't care

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

Scream out your
Scream out your
Scream out your name

Scream out your
Scream out your
Scream out your name

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

I offer you a hand my friend
I lift you up we rise again
There's nothing left it's all the same
Scream out your name

Scream out your
Scream out your
Scream out your
Scream out your name
