

Years Past

Throw The Fight

We sit and watch the fires burn and talk about the years that passed We raise our glasses into the air and sing the songs that made us who we are
We share the stories of summer nights when all we did was chase the s tars
Do you remember the year Chris died?
It changed it our lives

But this goes down tonight 'til we break
Until the morning no more last goodbyes
No regrets, no second chance so you'll never wonder
Why we never let, these moments pass us by
'Til the sun comes up and lights the sky' cause this goes down tonigh t

We never thought that the years would pass and chase away our dreams so fast
A million memories of waking up with heavy heads from sleeping on the floor
I still carry the picture from the evening that we made our vow
To live each day like it was our last and remember the past

But this goes down tonight 'til we break
Until the morning no more last goodbyes
No regrets, no second chance so you'll never wonder
Why we never let, these moments pass us by
'Til the sun comes up and lights the sky 'cause this goes down tonigh

This goes down tonight
Tonight
This goes down tonight

While staring out the window and chasing life away
It kills me just to know that life will never be the same
While standing in the water and searching for the truth
We find ourselves united by the friendships of our youth
As smoke pours from the ashes and carries us away
Our hope grows from the knowledge that we'll meet again someday
We'll meet again someday

But this goes down tonight 'til we break
Until the morning no more last goodbyes
No regrets, no second chance so you'll never wonder
Why we never let, these moments pass us by
Why we never let, these moments pass us by
Why we never let, these moments pass us by
'Til the sun comes up and lights the sky 'cause this goes down tonigh

This goes down tonight
Tonight

This goes down tonight
