

Give My Life

Throwdown

In my darkest hours of pain and emptiness when I had nothing to live for
You gave me more than I could ever ask and then persisted to gi ve more
You said you knew I'd do the same for you and expected no grati tude
In turn I owe this simple thing you saved, by death I swear to you
For my enemies I have nothing to give but hate
For those who doubted me you're my enemies just the same
For those who gave respect my respect to you is paid
But for you my friends that bled by my side I give more than bl ood for you
I'd give my life
In my darkest hours of pain and emptiness when I had nothing to live for
ve more
All you have in death is those who shed their blood and tears w ith you You'd give your life for me, I'd die for you, there is no great er truth
For my enemies I have nothing to give but hate
For my enemies I have nothing to give but hate
For those who doubted me you're my enemies just the same
For those who gave respect my respect to you is paid
ood for you
I'd give my life
