Ouroboros Rising

Throwdown

I don't need a reason
I don't need to explain
I'm told that death's in season
I don't need to be saved

But you... you tried so fucking hard Can't seem to cauterize your scars And stop your pride from bleeding Coiling, the Ouroboros rise The vicious cycle of our lives eternally repeating

Somewhere between love and failure There's a hole in the sky You and I might not live forever But our words never die

I don't need a reason
I don't need to explain
I know it's dyin' season
I don't need to be saved

But you... you fought so fucking hard
Rationalized your butchered heart
To keep the fire burning
Coiling, the Ouroboros rise
The vicious cycle of our lives eternally returning

Somewhere between love and sorrow There's an ocean of lies You and I may not see tomorrow But our words never die

You... you tried so fucking hard.
Can't seem to cauterize your scars
And stop your pride from bleeding
Coiling, the Ouroboros rise
The vicious cycle of our lives eternally repeating

Somewhere between love and failure There's a crow in the sky You and I might not live forever But our words never die We never die
