All I Ever Wanted

Thunder

I couldn't sleep last night, listening to the sound in my head
I couldn't fight it, so I thought I'd walk the street instead,
mmm
Then it started to rain, and all the guilt and the pain just for a moment, I felt it washing away Today was just the same, wondering when the feeling would pass,
 mmm
I rearranged the room, but it didn't help me shake off the past
, oh no, mmm

I can still see your face, frozen in time and in space
And I don't know, if I can take any more

'Cause all I ever wanted was you
But in a moment of weakness, I broke it in two
All i ever wanted was you
Just say you love me, mmm

mmm, (yeah, yeah)
I can still see your face, frozen in time and in space (Mmm)
And I don't know (I don't know), if I can take any, any more

'Cause all I ever wanted was you
But in a moment of weakness, I broke it in two
All i ever wanted was you
Just say you love me

(All I ever wanted was you)
I was jealous and stupid, but what can I do?
'Cause all I ever wanted was you
to say you love me
Just say you love me, mmm
Just say you love me, mmm
