

The Fire Is Gone

Thunder

Gonna pour a cup of coffee
And a cigarett

First thing this morning I took a walk outside
The situation weighing heavy on my mind
I was thinking, trying to clear my brain
Seeking inspiration from the pouring rain

It's so funny how the seasons change
Just like a turning novel page

Baby, I'm afraid our day is done
Just like the setting of the sun
There ain't no way we could ever carry on
And I don't wanna say it
But the fire is gone

Just know one reason that I can get
All I do know is, this ain't no way to live
There's no passion, there's no desire
If I said that I still love
You know I'd be a liar

it's so tough trying to fix my mistakes
'Cause they're harder than to make

Baby, I'm afraid our day is done
Just like the setting of the sun
There ain't no way we could ever carry on
And I don't wanna say it
But the fire is gone
Gone, yeah

Got to, got to roll

It's so funny how the seasons change
But now we've got to turn the page

Baby, I'm afraid our day is done
Just like the setting of the sun
There ain't no way we could ever carry on
And I don't wanna say it
But the fire is gone
Oh, the fire is gone
I don't wanna say it to you baby

Living a lie is a hell that you don't know