

Neurotic World of Guilt: Shame

Thy Disease

I blame you for the shame of adam
Which i suffer though it was not my fault
You are so kind to say my pain in my pride
I accuse you of suicides

It's your flesh that sings
The requiem to peace
Declares war which
I intend to rage
In your shapes I feel
The hunger and lust
And i say that you're
The one to blame

You and your shame again
