

Just Me

Tiffany Darwish

Every time I look in the mirror
I see the truth so clear
In a world that I'll never own
Left me breathing with a heart of stone...

Ain't no one commin' to save me
Ain't no one gonna set me free
Tired of guilt and living illusions
and the fear that's robbing me
Coz when the day is over, it's just me

Everyone blaming the world
You gotta take it for all it's worth
Coz after all you've only got one life so get the most...

Ain't no one commin' to save you
Ain't no one gonna set you free
Waisted time on guilt and complaining
Loss of joy and sanity
When the day is over...

It's alright
It's alright...
You can start again...
It's alright
It's alright
There is an end...

Stand up... stand alone
Be bold...
Moments of your life,
you hold...

Ain't no one commin' to save you
Ain't no one gonna set you free
Waisted time on tears and complaining
Loss of joy and sanity

Ain't no one commin' to save me
Ain't no one gonna set me free
Tired of guilt and living illusions
and the fear that's robbing me
coz when the day is over, it's just me

Yeah, just me
It's my life...

It's just me
it's just me
it's up to me...
It's my life...
Yeah
