

Sundown

Tiger Army

Feel the air, it's about to change and you can sense it
Watch the glow as it fades away and night commences
And now we come alive – dreams starting to arrive

First in flight first into the night of gold and crimson
Sound emanates from above a place that you can listen
For if you heard our song – in the darkness, it's so strong

The world will be ours soon, from sky to ground
And I will meet you at sundown, at sundown

The coral sky as the light dies and something new is born
We see the beauty in what they find only to be forlorn
Because this is our song – the darkness is where we belong

The world will be ours soon, from sky to ground
And I will meet you at sundown
The world will be ours soon, from sky to ground
And I will meet you at sundown
