

I can't remember when
I climbed out of a daydream
Sleep never fails me
I'm waking up and
I don't trust your constellations
They reflect in your mirror eyes

Let's play force love and see what happens
Pick a lock maybe you'll find a way in
It hurts when it works for one and not the other
Absent from these plans that we started

Our eclipse only shines from a distance
I can't make sense of a world you're not in
If you wanted to ask for forgiveness
Then commit and say it

Live with the webs you spin
Your truth was ciphered
Beautiful spider
What can I trust
I don't want false consolation
Broke the chain that tethered us

Let's play force love and see what happens
Light a match, burn the candle at both ends
Shine a light on what I couldn't see
When was the last time you were honest with yourself
Or with me?

Our eclipse only shines from a distance
I can't make sense of a world you're not in
If you wanted to ask for forgiveness
Then commit and say it, and say it

Our eclipse only shines from a distance
I can't make sense of a world you're not in
If you wanted to ask for forgiveness
Then commit and say it, and say it
