

Eyes Shut

Tigers Jaw

I wanna love but I'm afraid to
I wanna give myself up, but I want to turn myself in
I learned to hate 'cause I was made to
I am a product of those who came before me

We're all living with our eyes shut
And we're all living with our eyes shut

For what it's worth, I'm not out to prove you wrong
For what it's worth, you got the best of me
I've got a secret I can never tell you
It's nothing good

And it's not your fault I'm not strong enough
And it's not your fault I'm not strong enough
And it's not your fault I'm not strong enough
And it's not your fault I'm not strong enough

And we're all living with our eyes shut
And we're all living with our eyes shut
And we're all living with our eyes shut
And we're all living with our eyes shut
