

Cruel one convinced you in his stillness
In a dream, safe and harmless

Unknown to you
Wolf in sheep's clothing
Hand over mouth
His secrets you're holding
I can see you and the ache you're hiding
I'm here you know I'll always remind you

Lonely one, I always knew
The future tells a hazel view
Gemstone, like polish and acetone
For you are my sister sewn
I know you like the drive home
Breath deep, the knower's perspective
You'll see how the rest of this is undeniable

Hold out for June, it brings new season
Vision is clear, your mind revealing
Pressing the flower in the page
Forever kept, a memory made
Now you're so sure, you're always leading
All the same words now bring new meaning
I can hear you and I know you're singing
"I'm here you know I'll always remind you"

Lovely one
Four leaf luck
Skilled hands built you up

Hold out for June, it brings new season
Vision is clear, your mind revealing
Pressing the flower in the page
Forever kept, a memory made
Now you're so sure, you're always leading
All the same words now bring new meaning
I can hear you and I know you're singing
"I'm here you know I'll always remind you"

"I'm here you know I'll always remind you"
