

Thicker Than Thieves

Tilly and the Wall

You and me got something they can't touch
You and me connect the dots, uh huh
You're the one I call when things get tough
You can tell when I need you, oh oh
You and me would fuck some bitches up
Like they'd ever dare to step to us
Girl, you know I could never get enough
And I'm there if push comes to shove.

You are my sister, it's never gonna change
A constant fixture, it's always gonna be this way
I'm here forever, we're thicker than thieves, okay
In this together, no matter where the bad

I'll stand up for you, I always got your back
When you're mad at your boyfriend, I hope this makes you happy
I hope this song reminds you of all the times we laughed and laughed
