

Looking for Adventure

Tim McMorris

Hello world, wake me up to Another good, good morning
Time to go

Got that smile upon my face
Cause there's excitement in the chase
This I know

Yeah I'm going for the ride
And find myself, I am alive
And I soar

Still I run towards the wind
And let the challenge draw me in Cause I want more

We are all looking for adventure [x8]

Oh, wake up heart, and wake up mind
And see the world is yours to find, and know

With every passing day there's more
Calling you out, out to explore, get up and go

There is joy found in the race
And I feel it in the place, where I'm free

And I simply can't deny it
That I feel adventure calling out to me

Yeah,
We are all looking for adventure [x8]
And I'm livin' free, livin' free, livin' free, and I was meant to be
Livin' free, livin' free, livin' free and I was meant to be I'm livin' free, livin' free, livin' free and I was meant to be free, meant to be free
