

Songbird

Tim McMorris

See the sun rise
Feel the warmth on my face

There's a song on the breeze
Like a lasting embrace

Standing by the water see my reflection
Mind drifting off in a new direction

And I'm free
Free like a bird
Gliding on the sky, so high, upward
Traveling the heavens, my heart is stirred

I'm free
Free like a bird
Soaring over mountains, above the tree line
Discovering the world is mine

Walking in the woods
I can feel there's a piece of me

That's a part of the earth
That is untamed, wild and free

I'm being drawn in
Somethings calling my name

And I know that if I answer
I will never ever be the same

Softly the wind blows
Light dancing in shadow

Perched so splendidly
I sit and listen to her, melody

I'm feeling free
Free like a bird
Gliding on the sky, so high, upward
Traveling the heavens, my heart is stirred

Yeah I'm free
Free like a bird
Soaring over mountains, above the tree line
Discovering the world is mine
