

Ten Foot Cock And A Few Hundred Virgins

Tim Minchin

So you're gonna live in paradise
With a ten-foot cock and a few hundred virgins

So you're gonna live in paradise
With a ten-foot cock and a few hundred virgins
So you're gonna sacrifice your life
For a ride on a UFO
And when the Lord comes down in his shimmering chariot of salvation
Your gonna be the first to know

Oh-oh-ohh

And so if
God was there from the very beginning
He invented men and women
Then he also invented wanking
Then he said wanking was sinning
So now if I'm feeling randy
I'm not allowed to hand shandy
But having sex with my family
That is just fucking great
It's all there in Ezekiel 8
Just before he opens up his big pearly gate
And says that it's a sin
To take it up the date
Even if it's great
Even with your cowboy mate

Bah-dup-bah-dup
Bah-dup-bahhh
Bup-bah-dah-dah-da-da-da-an-day-aye-ohh

So you're gonna live in paradise
With a ten-foot cock and a few hundred virgins
So you're gonna sacrifice your life
For a shot at the greener grass
And when the Lord comes down with his shinny rod of judgement
He's gonna kick my heathen ass

Oh-oh-ohh

So if you
Cover the bodies of your women
Everybody is grinning
Because black is so slimming
Though it's not great for swimming
But it gives you an erection
With the increased sexual tension
What with the UV protection
That is second to none
You'll find it all in the Qur'an
Just next to the bit that justifies guns
And says that it's a sin
To take it up the bum
Even if it's fun

Even with permission from your mum

Bah-dup-bah-dup

Bah-dup-bahhh

Bup-bah-dah-dah-da-da-da-an-day-aye-ohh

So you're gonna live in paradise

With a ten-foot cock and a few hundred virgins

So you're gonna sacrifice your life

For a shot at eternity

And when the Lord comes down and I haven't done my penance

He's gonna disembowel me

Oh-oh-ohh

You say that

If I

Stumbled on a watch I'd assume it had a watchmaker

That a muffin presupposes a baker

So we must agree sooner or later

This proves there's a creator

So if I put my foot in a stinker

You'd assume the existence of a sphincter

Thus you don't need to be a great thinker

To conclude that God's a bum

Which negates the words of Genesis 1

Which make him out to be so much fun

Until Adam succumbed

To temptation

And then his only son

Got nailed to a gum

Or the Middle East equivalent

Which suggest that God's omniscience

Is nullified by his ambivalence

Unless it turns out that he's impotent

And if God can't get a boner

I guess that explains the plethora

Of huge erections in his honor

'Cos we all know a steeple's just a subconscious, compensatory manifestation, of a huge stiff penis

And still he tell us that it's heinous

To stick a penis up your anus

Even if you're famous

Even if you're good at tennis

Bah-dup-bah-dup

Bah-dup-bahhh

Bup-bah-dah-dah-day-day-oh-aye-ohh

So you're gonna live in paradise

With a ten-foot cock and a few hundred virgins

So you're gonna sacrifice your life

For a ride on a UFO

And when the Lord comes down with his big, stiff, slippery rod of judgment

I'm gonna be the first to go

He's gonna send me down below

He's gonna whip me like his ho

D'ya really think so?

I'm gonna be the first to go
