

Lay Me Down

Timeflies

Lay me down
Lay me down
Down, down, down...

You got me feelin' all the way up
No sleepin' on me, baby, stay up
Been a minute since I hit you with my old stop, pro stop
Drive the lane we should lay up
Like all day, all night, all day
Order Japanese in bed, I'm down with the role play
Down with you always comin' for me
Stay forever, don't you ever leave

So won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
You lay me, won't you lay

Down, down, down
You, you lay me
Down, down, down
You lay me
Down, down, down
You, so won't you lay me down?

I bench press, wake up with a French press
And a crossword, 1 down, but I digress
Poached eggs in my finest robe, never tie this
Loungewear leisure, lookin' like your highness
That means you, my queen, left the yokes out for you
I got hopes now for you, Leslie Knope's on for you
Stay in, say, "We never have to leave"
On forever, put your body on me

So won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
You lay me, won't you lay

Down, down, down
You, you lay me
Down, down, down
You lay me
Down, down, down
You, won't you lay me
Down, down, down
You lay me
Down, down, down
You, you lay me
Down, down, down
Lay, lay, lay me
Down, down, down
Won't you lay, lay, lay
Lay me down

Won't you lay me down

Won't you lay me down, down, down
Won't you lay me down
Won't you lay me down, down, down
It's cuffing season, that's the reason
Just this weekend, you and me can get so deep in Every episode we know of every season
Order in and don't stop eatin'
Put your lips on mine, just so Parisian
While we're dressing down like we're in Eden
You could kill me now, I'd rest in peace
And I would be fine with you by my side

So won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
Won't you lay me, won't you lay me down?
You lay me, won't you lay, lay, lay me down?
Down, down, down

Won't you lay me down
Won't you lay me down, down, down
Won't you lay me down
