

Forever

Times of Grace

Face our eyes
Towards the sea
Let the water
Crash over me

We walk into the tide
Unanchored from our minds
Let the currents
Set us free

We go where there is no pain
Beyond the strife and strain
Walk with me
Out from the fray

Lay us to rest
Let the air inside escape our chest
Blind us from sight
For we no longer see the light
We have become the rivers
We have become the rains
Will you stay with me
For I can't live without you.

Slash and burn
Burn the plains
Until nothing
Of us remains

Let the flames
Burn our bones
Consume all the hate we know
A tomb of memories

We are charred and cleansed
This inferno mess
Leave nothing
Save our pain

Lay us to rest
Let the air inside escape our chest
Blind us from sight
For we no longer see the light
We have become the rivers
We have become the rains
Close your eyes
Take my hand
For I can't live without you

Cant you see
We were meant to be
True love is forever

Why cant you see
We were meant to be
You cant run away
From your destiny

All the hurt can be undone
We can become as one
I can take all of our pain away

Now relish your final breath
We can be together in death
True love is forever
True love is forever

I am nothing
Without you
And you are nothing
Without me

Cant you see we were meant to be
True love is forever

No one can love you like I do
