

Rescue

Times of Grace

This is not the end
This is only the beginning
So many attempts loveless contempt
Caught paralyzed in our sadness
Integrity traded for madness
How long can you keep holding on
The past so full of mistakes
Move on to reconnect
We can fight through this

When the world has failed you everything has fallen apart I will
I rescue you
If you ever need me I will run to you I will rescue you

We are the light piercing through the shadows
We've got to fight there is no other way
Not letting go
Not letting go
I will be here unmoved
After all we have been through I will remain unmoved

When lost I will find you hold you in my arms I will rescue you
When nothing mends you I will see this through I will rescue you u
I'll stand beside you
I will be unmoved I will rescue you

If the sky was falling would you heed the warning
Find your hopelessness reconnect to the reason and purpose
Breaching past the surface
Finding our place to stand by your side hand in hand

I will rescue you
I will rescue you
