

Before you break another heart,
Before another teardrop (Go...) starts,
You'd better run from me, go, I love you so.

Before I look in your eyes,
And start believing all your (Go...) lies,
Don't make it hard for me, go,
Oh baby.

You know I love you but I don't love you.
You know I want you but I don't want to.
'Cause when I see you with somebody else,
I know I'm only fooling myself.

It's just a game to you or make believe.
You wear your heart on your sleeve, uh baby.

Before you break another heart,
Before another teardrop (Go...) starts,
You'd better run from me, go, I love you so.

Before I look in your eyes,
And start believing all your (Go...) lies,
Don't make it hard for me, go,
Oh baby.

You know you got me dancing on a string.
I'm like a puppet and I'm weakening.
You got the power to make it right.
What you do is 'baby, hold me tight'.

If I can be the only fish in your sea,
And I just wanna be free, oh baby.

Before you break another heart,
Before another teardrop (Go...) starts,
You'd better run from me, go, I love you so.

Before I look in your eyes,
And start believing all your (Go...) lies,
Don't make it hard for me, go. Oh baby.
