

Long Goodbye

Tina Dico

I'm beginning to see the signs
Calling for me from in between the lines
I'm beginning to wonder how long
Before I go under?

It's a long goodbye
It's a sea too deep to dive
But I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
'Cause I must pull through

I am falling in love again
With the sky up above and the warm summer wind
I am watching it change every day
Our worlds rearrange

But it's a long goodbye
It's a wall too high to climb
But I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
'Cause I must break through

I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
Just to get to you

But it's a long goodbye
It's a guard too strong to fight
It's a long goodbye
It's a sea too deep too dive...
