

Fugitive

Tinashe

Just a matter of time before you turn it on me
Innocent of the crime but still I'm so guilty
Justified in your lies by all the little stuff I did
All along I've been living with a fugitive
Oooh, I never thought that you (?)
Justified in your eyes by all the little stuff you give
All along I've been living with a fugitive

Face to face with mistakes all in disguise
Run away, cover your eyes
I'm use to it by now
When you catch a break, consequences are the fate
So use to it by now
I'm so lucky I see right thought you
So every time you do wrong I brace myself for the blame

Just a matter of time before you turn it on me
Innocent of the crime but still I'm so guilty
Justified in your lies by all the little stuff I did
All along I've been living with a fugitive
Oooh ?? about you
Justified in your eyes by all the little stuff you give
All this time I've been living with a fugitive
