Tinashe

You're the prince of
Built a castle

Yeah, you're the prince of my heart
And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)
Yeah, we built a castle of trust
And I'm your queen to be
Now the story of us about to start
Yeah, you're the prince of my heart
And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)
Yeah, we built a castle of trust
And I'm your queen to be
Now the story of us about to start

Once upon a time you're mine
Once upon a time we start to fall in love
Laid up with you every night
Wish upon a star it ain't too good to be true

Waitin' on something
What you waitin' on, waitin' on, yeah
Life's too short
Baby gotta take control of what you want, yeah
I'm gonna make you my happy ever after

Yeah, you're the prince of my heart (Prince of my heart)
And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)
Yeah, we built a castle of trust
And I'm your queen to be
Now the story of us about to start

And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)

Know you never felt this way
Thought you been in love before
But it wasn't love, love like this
And you never ever gonna need your space
Who would want space from something
That feel so damn good? Don't it?

Fly me out to Boston, Ritz-Carlton
It's getting later, we're getting louder
Fucking on the bathroom counter

Yeah, you're the prince of my heart
And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)
Yeah, we built a castle of trust
And I'm your queen to be
Now the story of us about to start

Yeah, you're the prince of my heart
And now there ain't no way they gon' keep us apart
(Keep us apart)
Yeah, we built a castle of trust
And I'm your queen to be
