

Peanuts

Tindersticks

They say you love peanuts

Yeah I love peanuts
I know you don't care that much
Yeah I love peanuts
And I love you

So I
I love peanuts too
It hurts with such exquisite pain
I feel that pain too

And in those moments
When the world comes between us
I'll throw a peanut into the stars
And we'll stop for a moment
And we'll think of each other
'Cause I still love peanuts
And I still want you

I'm sad in the morning
I'm sad in the evening
I'm sad now all the time
With no news from you
