

The Mystery of the Artist Explained

TISM

I've been working 76 hours per week;
I hate evert moment -
But I do it because
Somehow I like the pain.

Chorus:
I'm fucked in the head.

When I was five years old
I fell in love with my sister;
I still have a strange attraction
To women with faces like her.

Deep down I'm guilty still
About my treatment of my peers -
I used to think they were the fiddle,
And I was Nero and Rome was burning.
