Hold Her Tight

Titiyo

He feels emotions flow
The sun is rising slow
And makes her blue eyes glow
He just wants her to know

Things around him have been a mess She cured his sickness And I guess what he feels now Scares her somehow

But I know she'll be all right If he could shut up tonight And just hold her tight

This is a place for ends Where it all begins again And what he's about to say Scares her in a way
