

In Your Hands

Tobias Regner

I am naked
empty as a shell in the sand waiting for you
disappearing
losing everything that i am here without you
has time been broken
have i been left behind
i need to find you
breathe you in
breathe in your life?
in your hands
i can feel your love surround me with a touch, i am reborn once again
when your fingers wrap around me then i know my heart belongs
in your hands
i am drifting
falling in and out of a dream when will i wake
all my senses
feel like they've been torn at the seams scared i will break
my world is haunted
your spirit lingers on
i pray you'll find me
hurry, please
i have waited so long?
all of me misses all of you every part i need to make me whole all i want is to be with you and to know you'll never let me go don't let go
