Toby Lightman

Breathe in, hold it hold it Go on, begin To let go, cause there's no Reason

I'm turning myself
Into somebody else
Calm down, calm down, calm down

I'm holding a heart here in my hand
Hey, hey, hey
My own work of art here where I stand
Hey, hey, hey

Give in, its so hard to start Live in my skin The bruises are useless Against it

I'll try all I can
To find a soft place to land
Calm down, calm down, calm down

I'm holding a heart here in my hand
Hey, hey, hey
My own work of art here where I stand
Hey, hey, hey

Stand up straight, hey Stand up straight, hey Stand up straight, hey, hey Stand up straight, hey, hey Breathe in, hold it

I'm holding a heart here in my hand Hey, hey, hey My own work of art here where I stand Hey, hey, hey Hey, hey, hey
