

Running from Love

Toby Lightman

I was down under, hiding all too well
When you came crashing through my broken shell
Always fear a love like you, so I know what I gotta do

Showing no graces when I start to run
Stumbling backwards is what I've become
Don't need no helping hand, only ashes for what was a man

You held my heart, held my soul, held me back, won't it let go
So I held my breath, I held my tongue, as I turned away my only one

Running from love
Running from love
Running from love
And I can't breathe
I can't breathe

And pain's unfolding deep inside my chest
Where a heart's racing when it used to rest
How bad I want that kiss, but I know I can't take that risk

You held my heart, held my soul, held me back, won't it let go
So I clawed my way towards the sun, as I turned away my only one

Running from love
Running from love
Running from love
And I can't breathe
I can't breathe

Should it end today
Put my fears away
I can't live this way
I can't live this way

Don't wanna be alone
Won't running on my own
Is making me tired
Making me tired
Of running from love

Running from love
And I can't breathe
I can't breathe

Running from love
Running from love
Running from love
And I can't breathe
I can't breathe

(Got me running now, running real fast)
(Got me running now, running real fast)
(There's no other way, there's no other way)
(There's no other way)

(Got me running now, running real fast)

(Got me running now, running real fast)
(There's no other way, there's no other way)
