

Feel the weight wash away from your shoulder
Drink the day cause the darkness is over
Silence in your head
Eyes no longer red
Despair thrown out with the water
Distant are the cries getting softer
Cold is where you've been
No more shivering
It's all erased and

Wounds will fade and light will flow
No longer wrapped in the hurt
Hearts will feel and love will grow
You know you're only gonna get there
Slowly
Slowly

Dream state taking over the nightmare
Warm breeze pushing out of the cold air
Now you're looking up
No longer thinking of
How you've been holding your heart like a giant bomb
Not knowing where you're going or where you belong
Close your eyes and breath
Cause what you are to me
Is so amazing

Wounds will fade and light will flow
No longer wrapped in the hurt
Hearts will feel and love will grow
You know you're only gonna get there
Slowly

And when the light comes crashing in
And the chills cover your skin
Let the pain open your eyes
Don't fear the sound
As you stood by all the dark
The humble beauty that you are
Leaving behind only your broken heart
Heart

And wounds will fade and light will flow
No longer wrapped in the hurt
Hearts will feel and love will grow
You know you're only gonna get there
Slowly
Slowly
Slowly
Mmmmm
