

Take My Hand

Toby Lightman

There are days when your nights are long, you don't belong, and your hands are tied up There are times when down and out, you scream and shout cause y our tears are dried up you don't know why, no you don't know why when you feel like feeling, but you can't feel anything, cause your soul gone left you so you steal what you can't find in your life anywhere cause th e world's out to get you
you don't know why, no you don't know why

Take my hand, I'll lead you home
When you can't see where the road leads
Take my hand, you're gonna be ok
Cause tomorrow is another day, another day

I can tell you about the times I've had, when bad was bad, and all I was, was broken When you saw me sinking low, don't you know, it was your hand I was holding you pulled me through, when I needed you

Take my hand, I'll lead you home
When you can't see where the road leads
Take my hand, you're gonna be ok
Cause tomorrow is another day, another day

Cause tomorrow
Is another day

You're gonna be fine
You know you're gonna be fine
It's all gonna be alright

Take my hand, I'll lead you home
When you can't see where the road leads
Take my hand, you're gonna be ok
Cause tomorrow is another day, another day
