Toby Love

Ooo wo ooo yeah!
Trying to figure you out
I don't know why is going this route
Did what I could to make you see
What I was all about
But you played hard to get
You made me chase you
Break a likle sweat
Now it's time for me to move on
Cause I don't have time for no games you know!
Took you to places you never been before
But you'd rather chill with me brotheren next door
Your fly and all but you not on my level
I just wanna ask you girl (you girl)
Why you took advantage and played with my head
Never, never, never, gonna do this again
You was my baby girl
You was my best friend
Why it all gotta end baby

Why you be fakin girl?
(Tell me baby girl why you fronting on me)
You came and shook up my world
(You come in a mi life, now you want to leave no)
What is a man to do?
Made all your dreams come true (right)
Was I that bad to you, ho (tell em)
(I just wanna ask you girl)

I'm so naive I thought I'd never loose you
Silly me, I thought I'd alway's have you
Feeling's ain't the same
Now I'm the only one to blame

And when you say that for you I ain't
Worthy
Damn, why you keep tryna burn me (oh)
(I convinced myself nobody else can love me like you do)
(Breathless)
Can't believe all these thing's that I'm feeling inside, (Hopeless)
Can't get you out my mind.
I convinced myself, nobody else can love me like you do)
Uuu it breaks my heart
That we fell apart, girl all I need is you

Why you be fakin girl?
(Tell me baby girl why you fronting on me)
You came and shook up my world
(You come in a mi life, now you want to leave no)
What is a man to do?
Made all your dreams come true (right)
Was I that bad to you, ho (tell em)
(I just wanna ask you girl)

Why are you frontin on me
