

Come

Todd Rundgren

There is no freedom
We are not free
We all reach the boundary eventually

Time erases all we've made
We are judged by what we leave
Others turn their backs but as for us
Vast change to oversee

The battlefield is our back yard
We raise our flag for all to see
And when it's time to come for you
Will you come, come, come
Come with me

...