Liar

I don't stop for no-one, no-one pushes me I'm here just for living, just running wild and free I don't give a damn, no-one is gonna stop me In dark and empty streets, nobody sees

I'm a killer, running free
I'm a sinner, can't you see

Liar, now you run for your life Liar, now you run for your life

In the dark of night, in the light of day Take my hand and you'll see Hell and the face of fear It's no place to hide, there's no place to run When your name's on that list
