

Daisy Chain

Tokyo Police Club

My love gets so unreal I can't tell if I'm dreaming
Am I dreaming of you dreaming of me, or is it all really how it seems?
My heart so open wide I'll never touch the bottom
If I'm falling in love or falling apart I'm right where I wanna be

Cause I don't know any better

And I'm rolling high and low across the open fields
Where I grew up wild like any child without a care for what is real
And one day I'll find my way to the edges of this town
Where the rivers flow and flowers grow beneath the heavens looking down

I don't know any better
I don't know any better
I don't know any better

Daisy chain
You're not easy to believe in
Changing every season
And fairy tales
Fill my head until I'm hazy
Go ahead and call me crazy
But I still got my daisy chain

And my sword is made of steel so strong it never bends
If the battle is won or battle is lost I'll be swingin' till the end
And I made no enemies but I made some people cry
Cause I wouldn't trade my own crusade to be the apple of her eye

I don't know any better
I don't know any better
I don't know any better

Daisy chain
You're not easy to believe in
Changing every season
And fairy tales
Fill my head until I'm hazy
Go ahead and call me crazy
But I still got my daisy chain

I was raised on the VHS
Watch it over, watch it over till I memorize the end
There's not much to do in the suburbs
So I watch it again

Daisy chain
My daisy chain

My daisy chain
You're not easy to believe in
Changing every season
And fairy tales
Fill my head until I'm hazy
Go ahead and call me crazy
But I still got my daisy chain

Chain

Chain

Yeah I still got my daisy chain

(Felt good to sing!)