

Good Together

Tom Aspaul

I'm put down by, shot down by choice
I don't believe it
Put down by the sheer sound of your voice
I don't believe it

You were alpha from my dream
You were the bowl of gravity
And I'm falling, yes I'm falling
I wanna break your clarity
You were my new discovery
You're uncommon, come on down

Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Oh no!

I count, I'm the right hand,
Those before, they left me reeling
Hands down you are, without any voice
Wake me up now darling
If I was looking for a face
Then your steps I would retrace
Settle down there, settle down there
You were the future I would chase
In a nuclear on trace
I surrender, come on down

Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Oh no!

Got to make a sacrifice, you can throw me to the bulls
Got to make a sacrifice, you can throw me, throw me
Got to make a sacrifice, you can throw me to the bulls
Throw me to the wolves

Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Everybody's saying, everybody's saying
We'd be good together, good together
Oh no!
I'm put down by, shot down by choice
I don't believe it
