

Alaska

Tom Dice

What if hope
Hope is an ocean
And it throws in Throws in over

I'll be walking it for miles and miles
To get back on my feet
Find another side of me
A side that I can be

24 hours under the light
Taking my time alone in Alaska
24 hours, nothing but light
Walking this road alone in Alaska

What if time
Time has a meaning
And its hands
Its hands are for healing

I'll be walking it for miles and miles
To get back on my feet
Taking everyday by day
Till I found my peace

24 hours under the light
Taking my time alone in Alaska
24 hours, nothing but light
Running this road alone in Alaska

I'll be running
I'll be running
I'll be running
I'll be running

Yes, I'll be running
Ooh, I'll be running
Yes, I'll be running
Ooh, I'll be running and running
Running and running

24 hours under the light
Taking my time alone in Alaska
24 hours, nothing but light
Running this road alone in Alaska

Alone in Alaska
Alone in Alaska
Alone in Alaska
Alone in Alaska
Alone in Alaska
Alone in Alaska

24 hours under the light
Taking my time alone in Alaska
