

Hey There Sister

Tom Dice

Fire, soul burns beneath my skin
I reached the point of giving in
And before I turn to ashes
Before the rising sun
Help untie the secrets from my tongue

You're the flame I should not touch
I know it's not for life, it's not for love
And before we turn to ashes
Before the rising sun
Help me heal the damage that's been done

Hey there sister
What's your game
The one and only I just wanna taste
Hey there sister
Cannot late
And I got thoughts that I need to erase

Wine is filling up my blood
I know I had too much but not enough
And before I fall to pieces
Before I fall apart
Help me mend this lonely damaged heart heart heart heart

Hey there sister
What's your game
The one and only I just wanna taste
Hey there sister
Cannot late
And I got thoughts that I need to erase

Can we cover up
The signs of love
It's temporary
But just enough
So let's give it up
Before it's love
It's temporary
And that's just enough

Hey there sister
What's your game
The one and only I just wanna taste
Hey there sister
Cannot late
And I got thoughts that I need to erase

Hey there sister
What's your game
The one and only I just wanna taste
Hey there sister
Cannot late
And I got thoughts that I need to erase
