

The Achilles List

Tom Morello

Now greetings to the world
Ghost stories of social injustice shall be heard

Social injustice them hide and hush
Sweep under rug just like dirt and dust
Meanwhile civilians them fight and fuss
Meanwhile the majority have life rough
Too much minorities get locked up
Too much innocent in police handcuff
Too much resident claim the rent too nuff
Too much man dead just to prove who's tough

You can add my name
You can add my name

Too much injustice, no if's nor but's
Too much leaders act like them gone nuts
Too much jump ship 'cause the ride too rough
Try watch your back 'cause you might get snuffed
Too much children get abused and touched
School shootings rise up now, twice as much
School shootings rise up now, twice as much

You can add my name
You can add my name

How dare you continue to look away?
Enough is enough, enough is enough
Enough is enough, enough is enough
Enough is enough, enough is enough
Enough is enough
We will not let you get away with this

You can add my name
You can add my name
