

You'll Get Yours

Tom Morello

Take my home
Take my pride
I've suffered your greed
You can bleed me dry
Fill an ocean
With all your lies
I can see the Rising tide
Make no mistake

I will take
My broken bones
I'll be better than I was before
And though you may have won this war
Don't think you're safe 'cause you can be sure
That in time I'll get mine
And you'll get yours

Build your walls a hundred stories high
Sell your country for high rise
Sign your name on the straight line
Comes full circle
Don't be surprised
Make no mistake

I will take
My broken bones
I'll be better than I was before
Then though you may have won this war
Don't think you're safe 'cause you can be sure
That in time I'll get mine
And you'll get yours

I will take
My broken bones
And I'll be better than I was before
And though you may have won this war
Don't think you're safe 'cause you can be sure
And though you may have won this war
Don't think you're safe 'cause you can be sure
That in time I'll get mine
And you'll get yours
