

Can't Keep Away, Part 2

Tom Robinson

Mainline station at a quarter to four
Down in the tearoom watching the wall
Wait till forever, the boy next door
Daylight fading, I'm hating it all

Can't keep away, keep away, keep away
I can't keep away
Can't keep away
I keep coming on back for more
Can't keep away, keep away, keep away
I can't keep away
Can't keep away
From the other door

The door says welcome when you're all alone
Come in, sit down, make yourself at home
Can't help crying when I'm lying in bed
'Cause I need this feeling like a hole in the head

Can't keep away, keep away, keep away
I can't keep away
Can't keep away
I keep coming on back for more
Can't keep away, keep away, keep away
I can't keep away
Can't keep away
From the other door
