

Just As

Tom Rosenthal

Just as I thought you could not sleep you slept
Just as I thought you could weep you wept
Oh go on surprise me, do the very best you can.

Just as my mind had formed the words it froze.
Just as the strawberries landed upon your nose.
Oh go on surprise me, do the very best you can.

Cos you've got the cheekiest face in London
You've got the cheekiest face around.

Just as I thought I knew your face it changed
Just as you learned how to move you stayed
Oh go on surprise me, do the very best you can.

Cos you've got the cheekiest face in London
You've got the cheekiest face around.
